Doric temple of Athena and the double-winged portico. Other highlights include a Byzantine church and the remains of the castle citadel of the Knights of St. John. It is a well-known spot of great interest and attracts many visitors and worshippers who come to see the Byzantine frescoes and engraved temple full of golden offerings. Next we sail to Symi harbour (Yalos) where you will have free time to walk through the narrow streets, shop for local handicrafts, eat fresh seafood in a local taverna or soak up some sun in an open-air café.

4. Half Day Tour to Filerimos & Kamiros: €40,00 Per Person

(Including transportation, English speaking guide and entrance fees to Filerimos & kamiros)

From Ixia it's a short but scenic drive to the hilltop monastery of Filerimos, built by the Byzantines in the 5th century AD on the ruins of ancient Ialysos.

In front of the steps leading up to the monastery are the remains of a Greek temple, the cross-shaped baptistery of the first Christian basilica and the tiny underground chapel of St George, with faded 15th century wall paintings. Roman Catholic as well as Greek Orthodox Christians worshipped the icon of the Virgin of Filerimos in the hexagonal Church of the Knights, though at separate altars. To the rear of the monastery are the impressive remains of the Byzantine garrison.

Continuing along the north-western shore lays the third of the islands ancient city, Kamiros. Kamiros was one of the three large Doric cities of the island, which united with Ialysos & Lindos in the 5th Century BC to create the powerful city state of Rhodes. This ancient city of Kamiros contains the remains of an advanced civilization that is dated nearly 3,000 years old.
